3,000,000 U. S. In France June 1

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The German salient that bulged into the British lines in the Hebuterne sector north of Albert has practically disappeared. The Germans north of the Ancre river have withdrawn as far as Hebuterne, hotly pursued and harassed by the British. The Germans in the Lassigny sector are retreating across the Dvette river, leaving only a screen of machine guns behind them, said a dispatch from a correspondent on the French front today. Fighting for two days in their gas masks, the French took all of Lassigny ridge, which dominates the German positions. As the French artillery is brought up the Germans will be forced back still farther.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—American troops today began to disembark at Vladivostok and immediately will join the international force to aid the Czech-Slovak army in its campaign in Siberia. The Americans compose the Twenty-seventh regular infantry regiment from Manila and will be followed by another regiment from the Philippines and additional troops from the United States.

PARIS, Aug. 15.—Both sides are gathering strength for a resumption of heavy fighting. That, however, does not prevent the French from hammering away at the Lassigny-Noyon line and doggedly struggling onward through gas-choked woods.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The Germans have withdrawn one or two miles on a nine-mile front, at the western edge of the Flanders salient, according to information received here this afternoon. Vieux-Borquin, three miles north of Merville, was evacuated during the withdrawal.

"UP TO AMERICA TO WHIP GERMANY," SAYS MARCH

Our Men In Russia—Great World Diplomatic Moves Brewing—Huns Slammed Back On Wide Front

Here is what General Peyton C. March told Senator Chamberlain concerning the increased war program.

Asked if America had to put enough men over there to whip Germany, he replied: "That is it in nutshell."

All the men called for active service under the proposed new draft ages, 18 to 45 will be in France next June.

The policy of the War Department is to put the maximum number of men in France with the idea of shortening the war. It was shown that it was necessary to drop to 18 years and to go to 45 in order to get the men to carry it through.

The President has announced that the American policy from this time on is centered on the western front in France. We have declined to be diverted from that policy.

The purpose of America is to furnish enough man power to whip the Germans. The only way in which Germany can be whipped is by America going into this thing with her whole strength.

When a young man is exempted solely in order that he may engage in an essential industry he ought to continue in that employment in good faith while any grievance is being adjusted by the industrial boards. If he fails to do so he ought to be subject to the draft.

NO CLASS EXEMPTION IN NEW DRAFT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Replying to objections of Samuel Gompers to a work or fight provision in the new man-power bill, Senator Thomas, of Colorado, read to the Senate today a letter he had written to Mr. Gompers, declaring enactment of such a measure at this time as essential, and adding: "Favor and privilege should be unknown as far as possible in this war. We are not, by exempting certain classes, extending favors to them. We are merely utilizing their peculiar abilities in essentially necessary directions. As long as they are used, their exemption should continue. When they are not used, I think it should cease.

IMPORTANT DIPLOMACY BEING CONSIDERED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Without the necessary tangible evidence for conviction there nevertheless was a distinct feeling in official circles here today that diplomatic events of the first magnitude are brewing.

President Wilson after a long conference with Secretary Lansing yesterday suddenly decided to visit his personal friends and confidential advisers, Colonel E. M. House, at Mass. He left last evening on a special train and is there today.

It was officially stated the President was off "for a rest." At the same time, there have been most significant—and in some cases, extremely delicate international problems breaking out on the world situation during the last week, any one of which might prove a "poser" for the United States at this time. They include:

1. The distinctly hostile attitude of the Bolshevik leaders in Russia to the allies, their arrest of allied consuls and vigorous hostilities against the Czech-Slovak troops in Siberia.

2. The increasing gap between Bulgaria and her Teuton allies and the growing possibility of an armistice between that nation and her enemies.

Among other subjects which it is believed President Wilson will discuss with Colonel House was the peace drive reported to be coming from Germany. Although there was no thought that whatever Germany would propose would be acceptable now, it was expected Colonel House and the President would study the

ALLY CASUALTIES LESS THAN GERMAN PRISONERS TAKEN

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The total casualties since the start of the bloody drive, August 8, are less than the number of German prisoners taken, it was learned this evening.

The latest count of prisoners on the German front shows that 24,000 have been taken since August 8.

The excess of German losses over those of the allies is greater than in previous battles, and the percentage of killed is enormously greater.

Field Marshal Haig today announced the number of prisoners taken by Rawlinson's and Behm's armies as 20,000, but Haig is reported to have taken an additional 10,000.

CONGRESSMAN HAYES SPEAKS HERE TONIGHT

The announcement appears in another column of the address which J. O. Hayes proposes to deliver at the Lincoln Auditorium this evening, at 8 p. m. Mr. Hayes is a candidate for Governor and is well known throughout the state. He has just completed a tour of the state covering the principal cities from El Centro in Imperial county to Eureka and Redding in the north. He is a pleasant and entertaining talker and those who go to hear him, discuss the political issues of the day no doubt will enjoy a very pleasant evening.

Mr. Hayes and his brother own the San Jose Mercury, one of the acknowledged substantial newspapers of California. He is also a member of Congress, and as such has a good record to his credit. He is one of the heads of the National Republican central committee and prominent in our national life. Those who heard him speak at Martinez recently, inform us that his address was by far the best so far delivered during the present campaign.

TWO COUNTY OFFICIALS FIGHT

Martin Joost And Don Salituri Come To Blows—Latter Resigns

Martinez was very much edified, doubtless, yesterday, when two officials of the county gave an exhibition of a fist fight on the public streets and had to be separated by friends.

The story goes to the effect that Don Salituri, deputy sheriff, handed out toward Martin Joost, tax collector, a Zeal campaign card as the latter was passing along the street. Joost made some slighting remark, whereupon Salituri intimated that Joost was pro-German, or words to that effect. Joost is of German extraction, but objected to the "pro" part of it, naturally enough, and so came back at the other with derogatory remarks reflecting upon the deputy, whereupon the two tangled and a free-for-all was on.

Quite a crowd refereed the fight, and from what we can learn it was considerable of a mixup for a few minutes, when friends of both interfered and quelled the riot. Joost is alleged to have sought legal advice and got it to the effect that he better go home and cool off and shut up. It was good advice. The News has had a notion to give him some of the same kind of advice for some time.

Salituri immediately went to the sheriff's office and tendered his resignation as deputy, which was accepted. His letter of resignation follows:

R. R. Yeale, Sheriff of Contra Costa County,

Dear Sir:

Having this day had an altercation with Mr. M. W. Joost over matters purely personal to myself and family and realizing that designing

HUNS AND TURKS ARE QUARRELING AND FIGHT NEAR

LONDON, Aug. 15.—(British Admiralty Wireless.) Differences between the Germans and the Turks are becoming more frequent and bitter, according to information received from Constantinople.

During a quarrel with Talat Pasha recently, the German ambassador is reported to have threatened to bombard the city.

Advices from Constantinople say that leaflets dropped by British aviators are read by the population with sympathetic interest.

Posters recently found on the walls of mosques and government buildings declaring that the Germans are the real enemies of Turkey called forth a strong protest from the Ottoman ambassador and a demand for an inquiry.

LOCAL MEN ENLISTING IN MERCHANT MARINE

A fine work in a very quiet way has been going on in town for some time in the handling of enlistments for the American Merchant Marine. The appealing thing about the merchant marine is that it is not only a big essential war work, but is looked forward to the dawn of another era of peace when American bottoms will carry the freight of the world and Old Glory will wave in the winds of the ports of the world, an emblem of the determined spirit of an aroused people to regain once more their true position as commercial leaders of the world's markets.

Recruiting agent Neal reports an average of two enlistments a day. He has also placed a number of Richmond men in the Navigation School in Berkeley where, upon the persons may attempt to hold you responsible for my personal act, for the reason that I am deputy sheriff; and realizing that politicians may attempt to make political capital and unfair use of my personal difficulties with Mr. Joost, I feel that it is only fair to you that I resign my position. Therefore I do hereby resign as deputy sheriff of Contra Costa county, my resignation to take effect immediately.

UNKNOWN MAN SUICIDES BY ROPE NEAR SAN PABLO

Miss Hattie Rumrill Finds Gruesome Body Of A. G. Bradley Hanging From Tree On Creek

Crossing the creek at the back of her ranch home, near San Pablo yesterday, Miss Hattie Rumrill came upon the body of a man who had committed suicide by hanging himself to a tree. Coroner Bert Curry was notified and the remains removed to the morgue.

Search of the dead man's clothes revealed a coat piece and two receipts for contributions to the Red Cross at Sacramento, made out to A. G. Bradley. One was for $2, dated June 11, and the other was for $1, dated July 6. The Red Cross at that place has been asked to look up his family or friends.

The man had tied a rope to his neck and then to a limb overhanging the stream, after which he jumped over the embankment and strangled to death. His feet were within a few inches of the ground.

Reason Unknown. No reason can be assigned for the man's rash act, as he is unknown in this locality, and from appearance was traveling through the country on foot. Up to a late hour Coroner Curry had received completion of a six weeks course, those who qualify enter the service as officers with salaries ranging from $120.00 to $300.00 a month with 50 per cent bonus if trips are made through the war zone. The American Merchant Marine is the best paid merchant marine service in the world. In war or peace, American seamen have always been better paid than those of other countries.

A Look Ahead. The United States Shipping Board is not basing its plans for the new Merchant Marine on war conditions. It is taking a look ahead, to a time when thousands of American seamen will be employed where there are now hundreds and in permanent jobs. Ship building is expanding in this country as never before. It will continue to expand for years after the return of peace, as a result of orders now in sight. Not less than 14,000,000 tons of new shipping will go into commission under the American flag in the next two years. This means a return to the blue water for thousands of ambitious Americans with love of sea going in their blood.

Many workers have just put in some strenuous weeks on this stamp drive, and much credit is also due to them. They have all worked like Trojans, and one we know of especially, Professor W. T. Helms, has simply been on the job night and day, pulling every possible wire and poking everybody up good and strong. The committee feels glad and thankful that the quota is at last practically in sight.

no word from Sacramento, further than that the Red Cross there were trying to trace the man from the contributions he had made to that society.

Miss Rumrill was very much upset by her uncanny find and wishes people would select some other locality for their suicidal stunts.

From all appearances the man had not been dead more than 24 hours. He was evidently a working man, poorly dressed and about 45 years of age.

War Stamp Quota Is Now In Sight

A War Savings meeting was held in the city building last night, which was attended by all the prominent business men and community leaders. Mr. F. R. Schlessinger, who is at the head of the War Savings committee of the state, was present, and very important matters were some over.

Sufficient pledges have been made to warrant the committee in the belief that Richmond will fully meet her rather large quota of $400,000.

The following pledges were made at last night's meeting: Banks, $13,500; Merchants, $50,000; Industrial plants all pledged generously, previously pledged, $125,000.

Considering that Richmond is a workingman's town, this quota of $400,000, on top of the immense amounts already raised on the various other drives, was a very large bite, and it is to our city's everlasting credit that it is going to again "go over the top."

Many workers have just put in some strenuous weeks on this stamp drive, and much credit is also due to them. They have all worked like Trojans, and one we know of especially, Professor W. T. Helms, has simply been on the job night and day, pulling every possible wire and poking everybody up good and strong. The committee feels glad and thankful that the quota is at last practically in sight.

Clean Up and Look Right

All over America hundreds of towns and cities are having what they term "Clean-Up Week," and during that week every body who possibly can give their home or place of business a coat of fresh paint. This would be a good plan for Richmond.

Nothing adds so much to the looks of a house or a town as fresh paint. It gives an air of sanitation, cleanliness and also prosperity.

Use some wall paper, paint and varnish on the inside, too. It will make you feel better to have your home look better, and you will make a hit with the wife at the same time.

THE COMMON SENSE VIEW

So many people who are greatly interested in one particular thing or issue, are prone to forget every other issue, and go to the extremes on that one thing. And, more often than not, this fanaticism antagonizes other people to the extent that the one thing or issue is hurt more than benefitted. This applies to the prohibitionists, to the labor organizations, and to many other people and societies.

The News is for prohibition, and is the only daily paper in this section of California that has had the courage of its convictions, and has the nerve to go to the bat against the liquor interests in season and out, and all the time. Yet we are not exactly daffy on the subject of prohibition—at least not to the extent of being unable to see and realize that there are also other important things in this world which need attention, and other important issues. We do not mind saying right now, in defining our position, that we prefer a man who may take a drink once in a while and is all right every other way, to one who is all right on prohibition and all wrong on every thing else. But some prohibitionists go on the theory that unless a man thinks as they do on the prohibition issue he cannot possibly be right on anything.

It is the same with quite a sprinkling of men in the ranks of organized labor. They get it into their heads that because a man is a member of organized labor he must of course be all right. This is far from the truth. There are black sheep in every flock, and organized labor is no more prone to be perfect than any other set of human beings.

The News is a labor paper. Its editor has a life-time record for being on the side of labor and the poor man, that few can equal, and it speaks or itself; but when it comes to the anarchists who occasionally creep into the ranks of organized labor, and raise trouble, and commit crimes, not realizing the difference between liberty and license, we have no more use for them than an anarchist or a criminal in any other walk of life. All anarchists and criminals look alike to us, whether they are dressed in broadcloth or overalls. Crime is crime, no matter by whom committed, and right is right, and wrong is wrong.

What brings all this to mind is a letter from a prominent prohibition lady, asking how, if the News is for prohibition it can support T. D. Johnston for District Attorney.

Simply because we believe he is the best man, of the two in the race, for the office. It probably would not be hard work to prove that he has been known to take a drink occasionally of something more ardent than water, in which he has for company about nine-tenths of all the rest of the men—very few men can qualify as angels or as being infallible. We have also heard that Mr. Tinning has been known to do the same thing, and if this be true, then that appears to be about fifty-fifty. Then, that being the case, arises the question of which is the better adapted to fill the position, by virtue of knowledge, experience and ability. In this the preponderance of evidence seems to be with Mr. Johnston.

And going back to temperance—the scribe has been more active against the brothels, dives and hell-holes of this county than any other one man in the county, and in the prosecution of that work has got to give credit to District Attorney Johnston and to Sheriff Veale for a whole lot of very good work and assistance in this direction. When a man does a good deed, we are going to give him credit for it, no matter what creed he belongs to or don't belong to, or what the color of his hair is. And Johnston and Veale have been instrumental in closing up forty or fifty of the worst dumps and vile resorts on earth, during the past two years—and the vacant houses where they flourished stand in mute but eloquent evidence of this fact today.

But, argues the breed of prohibitionist who is daffy on one subject and cannot see any other, they have not yet made a clean sweep—there are still some that ought to be closed—the Stag, down between Fitege and Oakland, is one of them. True enough, but is that any reason why they should not be given full credit for the forty or fifty which they did close up and put out of commission? We think not.

"Much has been done, but more remains to do—their galleries blaze, why not their city, too?"—Byron. The News is among those who are thankful very much so, for what has been done, and because of that good record believes that more yet will be done, all in good time. The world was not made in a minute, and there is much doubt upon the part of many about its being done in a week.

We all know what Mr. Johnston has done and this paper is satisfied with it, instead of damning him because it was not more. We do not know what Mr. Tinning would do, under similar circumstances. He might do better, and then again he might do worse, but be that as it may, the News is willing to let well enough alone, which is a smart thing to do, as a general proposition.

And the same thing applies to the Sheriff.

If the home loving, sane, just, liberty loving hardworking, conscientious people ever permit Bolshevism to gain any headway in this country, they may just as well get ready for the dose Russia is having.

Patriotism demands that you save electricity for war industries. Northern and Central California have a serious power shortage because of lack of rain during the past winter and the increased use of electricity by war industries.

Florence Reed Has Come to Town

Florence Reed, who is the star of "The Struggle Everlasting," the feature at the Richmond Theater today and Saturday, is seldom seen off Broadway productions unless it is through the medium of motion pictures. For three years now she has been one of the leading stars whose name glitters in electric lights in front of the big theaters, and her present vehicle bids fair to run throughout the year. Last year she was the star in "The Wanderer" at the Manhattan Opera House, while this season, she is in "Chu Chin Chow" at the Century Theater. The biggest photoplay successes have been made under the management of Harry Rapf, who has presented her in "Today," and who is also responsible for her wonderful work in "The Struggle Everlasting."

This is the first showing of this picture on this coast. Whether or not it shall be shown over the rest of the circuit depends upon whether Richmond people think it is a good film. What is your vote?

REBEKAH INITIATES

The Richmond Rebekah Lodge No. 296 initiated a class of seven members at their meeting last night, in Bank hall. Many visitors from the close by towns and cities were present, and a short program was rendered. Arrangements were made for a benefit ball for the benefit of the Red Cross, to be held at East Shore Park, on September 17.

After the meeting a banquet was spread, and all made merry.

LAW ENFORCED

The child labor law has been invoked and as a result several score of Martins and Concord boys have lost their good jobs at the Bay Point ship yards. On Tuesday a government representative visited the plant and ordered that all boys under the age of 16 years should no longer be employed whereupon the youngsters who have been making big wages for weeks past working as rivet passers were all sent home.

It's hard on the boys for they were making their vacations profitable and at the same time helping materially to meet the demand for labor but "rules are rules" and the boys must occupy themselves otherwise until the schools open.

MACHINISTS TO GO BACK TO WORK

Strikers at Cambridge, Mass., Resume Labor on Government Contracts.

AGREE TO AWAIT DECISION

Men Were Angered at Slowness of National War Labor Board in Acting on Demands That They Had Recently Presented.

More than 700 machinists, who went on strike at the Worthington Pump and Machinery corporation's works at Cambridge, Mass., where they were engaged in making pumps for 150 new destroyers, voted unanimously to return to their benches.

The machinists left their work in protest against what they charged was unnecessary delay on the part of the national war labor board in reaching a decision on their demands for increased wages and an eight-hour day.

At a meeting of the strikers union officials said that the strike had been started against their advice. They told the men that many men who had been given deferred classification in the army draft because they were engaged in work necessary to the conduct of the war would soon find themselves liable to service under the "work or fight" rule.

William H. Johnston, president of the International Machinists' union, in a telegram to the strikers, said that the war labor board was increased at their action. He urged them to return to work at once, intimating that no decision would be rendered while the work of the government was being held up.

GENERAL LABOR NEWS

The strike of Columbus (O.) street car men was called off by their union after a conference between union officials and those of the Columbus Railway, Light and Power company, arranged by Fred C. Croston, acting for the national war labor board. News of the agreement was instantly wired to the board in Washington.

Heads of the various Racine (Wis.) city departments received a flat turn-down when they made a demand on the common council for an increase in pay. The officials were informed that there can be no change in the budget now that it has been prepared. The matter consequently was laid over until fall.

The Amoskegg and Stark mills, Manchester, N. H., engaged largely on government contracts, were closed by a strike of cotton operatives for a 15 per cent wage increase instead of a 12 1/2 per cent increase granted.

Additional increases in wages have been granted bricklayers and laborers of Chicago. Bricklayers will get 87 1/2 cents an hour after August 1 and laborers an advance of 7 1/2 cents an hour after September 1.

In Germany, in certain industries, the proportion of work done by women has risen from slightly under 18 per cent in 1914 to practically 60 per cent at the present time.

More than 60,000 masters, officers and seamen on American merchant vessels traversing the war zones have been insured by the United States government.

Typographical unions of the Northwest territory, which include Washington, Idaho, Oregon, Montana and British Columbia, will ask a uniform wage scale.

Child welfare legislation has made distinct gains during the last year. New York, Wisconsin, Massachusetts and Missouri were the progressive states in labor legislation.

Most of the 300 employees of the American Railway express in Milwaukee will benefit by the wage increase which has been announced. The new wage scale went into effect July 1.

A $6,000,000 shipbuilding plant will be constructed at Toledo, Ohio, immediately, it is announced by an agent of the Great Lakes Shipbuilding company.

A voluntary increase of 10 per cent in wages has been given several thousand workers employed in seven of the largest shoe factories at Haverhill, Mass.

Railway accidents will be reduced by 20 per cent, according to estimates of the railway administration, through the efforts of 1,000 safety committees.

Girls employed in the bureau of printing and engraving have formed a union and affiliated with the National Federation of Federal Employees.

The Mississippi legislature passed an educational bill, subject to local option, and applying to children between seven and sixteen years of age.

Scottish Ship Shows Battle Signs

Marks of a battle with a submarine were borne by a Scottish ship tied up at a Richmond wharf. A hole from a 2-inch shell shows in the upper part of the stern. The shot was fired as the ship was en route from Port Said to Gibraltar. The ship escaped the submarine and received honorable mention by the British government.

The shell, after passing through the stern, exploded in the starboard passage, one splinter of it shattering the chair upon which the radio operator was sitting while sending out a wireless warning. Officers of the ship would not allow their names to be used.

WILL SOON GET BACK WAGES

Arrangements of Pay Due Railroad Men Are Being Adjusted as Rapidly as Possible.

Numerous inquiries have been made by railroad men regarding the arrangements of pay due them under the award of the commission recently appointed to adjust railroad wages, and approved by Director General McAdoo. In most cases these arrangements have not been paid, although a month has elapsed since the award was approved. The arrangements date to January 1, 1918, from which time pay increases were ordered by the award to take effect.

In the case of several of the smaller railroads the award has been paid to the men, but with the larger roads there has been delay, due to the difficulty experienced in figuring out the payments. As much progress as possible has been made. It is said by railroad officials, and it is expected that the arrangements will soon be paid, especially as Mr. McAdoo has urged the officials of the roads, in whose hands the matter of payment has been left by the government, to effect the payment as soon as possible.

KEY TO CODE DISCOVERED

Discovery of the key to a code alphabet, which police and Federal handwriting experts have sought to decipher for several months, has revealed the existence of an organized gang of 160 blackmailers operating in San Francisco and northern California towns.

Fishermen and wealthy Italian residents of the bay cities have been victims of the organization, say the police, to the extent of many thousands of dollars. This was revealed through letters seized in raids, and which the authorities have been able to decode to the first time.

Banquet Sept. 6

A rousing big Chamber of Commerce banquet has been decided upon by the directors of that boost body, for the evening of Friday, September 6, and it is hoped to make it the best feast and entertainment of the kind held for a year or more.

The banquet will be held at the clubhouse of the Richmond Club, and the ladies of that organization are to prepare it, which is ample guarantee that it will be something mighty fine and worth travelling miles to partake. When the ladies of the Richmond Club cook dinner it is a sure bet that it is some bangup good dinner.

The day was spent in games and sports, awarding prizes to the children. All enjoyed a big luncheon at noon, and ice cream was served throughout the day.

Much laughter and fun was caused by the stout and slim women's races, and many interesting pictures were taken of the women and children. The committee in charge consisted of Mrs. Ella Raff, Mrs. Anna Theis, Mrs. Nola Van Valer, Miss Daisy White and Mrs. Gately.
